a. Confidentiality. The Executive acknowledges that he has acquired and will acquire confidential information reflecting the business of the Company, its subsidiaries and affiliates, including, but not limited to, business plans, financial information, acquisition prospects, customer and supplier lists (as such terms may relate to the businesses and other trade secrets or know-how of the Company, including a subsidiary of the Company) as they may exist from time to time (collectively, "Confidential Information"), which are valuable, special and unique assets of the Company's business, access to knowledge of which is essential to the performance of the Executive's duties hereunder. Accordingly, the Executive will not disclose, at any time (during his employment under this Agreement or thereafter), such Confidential Information, other than in connection with the performance of his duties under this Agreement or if required to disclose Confidential Information pursuant to law, subpoena, court order, or requirements of Executive's counsel, provided that after the term of his employment, these restrictions will not apply to such Confidential Information which is then in the public domain (provided that the Executive was not responsible, directly or indirectly, for such Confidential Information entering the public domain without the Company's consent).

b. Competitive Activity.

(i) The Executive will not, during the term of his employment and, if his employment is terminated: x) by the Company other than for Cause; or y) by the Executive, whether or not for Good Reason, for a period of two years thereafter, without prior consent of the President and Chief Executive Officer, engage or participate in any of the following activities within the States (including the District of Columbia) in which the Company does business:

c. Remedy for Breach and Modification. The Executive acknowledges that the provisions of this Section 8 are reasonable and necessary for the protection of the Company and that the Company will be irrevocably damaged if these provisions are not specifically enforced. If any restriction set forth in Section 8 is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable with respect to one or more geographic areas, lines of business and/or months of duration, then Executive agrees, and hereby submits, to the reduction and limitation of such restriction to the minimal extent necessary so that the provisions of Section 8 shall be enforceable. If any other provision of this Agreement is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable under present or future law, such provision shall be fully severable, and this Agreement shall be construed and enforced as if such illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision were never a part hereof; and the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid, or unenforceable provision, or by its severance.
